Begins Series of Sermons on Sunday

Evangelist Carl Bassett

Technocrat Will Speak at Church

A representative of Technocrat, Inc., will present a few of the scientific principles of this group at the Methodist church Sunday evening, June 2, at 7:30. While this organization is not primarily religious, it does give a definite place to the church in its program although in an entirely unbiased manner. Rev. Harry G. Banks said.

"A long period of research by these scientifically minded individuals into the social and economic changes which have been coming rapidly during the growth of modern machinery makes it appear that if they have something to contribute, that the Christian church should be informed and be ready to cooperate insofar as the status of human relationships are concerned. The Methodist church does not at this time take any part in the program of Technocrat, but believes that its findings on a few of the pertinent factors in modern life should be jointly studied," Rev. Banks said. An invitation is given to all interested in rebuilding spiritual and social foundations of the world to be present.

Ecumenical services every night at 7:30 except Saturday.

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Rev. E. W. Matz, pastor. Marcellina and Arlington. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11 a. m. Sermon by J. N. Linenger. Young People's meeting, 6:30 p. m. Choir rehearsal, Friday, 7 p. m. Women's Missionary Society meeting Tuesday, June 4, 2 p. m.

Bringing his inspiring messages in conjunction with his music (trombone) and chalk drawings, Carl Bassett will be at the First Baptist church for two weeks beginning Sunday, June 2. The series of meetings is expected to set new records for attendance, according to Rev. C. Miles Northrup, local pastor. Every night one of Bassett's pictures will be given away to the person bringing the largest number of friends to the meeting.

Evangelist Bassett's sermon subjects for the first week are: Sunday: "Modern Crucifixion" in the morning and "Crimson Crises" at 7:30 p. m.; June 3, "A Crown of Thorns;" June 4, "The Broken Heart;" June 5, "Sign of the Cross;" June 6, "Nail-Pierced Hand;" June 7, "The Face of Jesus;" June 8, morning: "The Broken Circle" and evening, "The Old Rugged Cross."

Foursquare Church Has Special Services

In a special service to be held in the Torrance Foursquare church, 7:30 p. m. Sunday evening, June 2, Doug Teeple and his "Sky Riders," a musical group formerly heard over the radio, will present a program of music and song.

Also at the young people's services at 6:30 p. m., Doug Teeple will show missionary pictures taken recently in South America. Rev. Ben D. Griffith, pastor, will speak at the morning service, 11 a. m., on "Communion With the Lord" and at evening service on a prophetic message.
